No.1 Standard Club Quadrille No.I

Figure I

Figure I is a musical score for a piano piece, likely a dance accompaniment. It is written in G major (one sharp) and 6/8 time. The score consists of five systems of two staves each. The first system shows a treble staff with eighth and sixteenth notes and a bass staff with eighth notes and rests. The second system continues the melody in the treble and accompaniment in the bass. The third system features a more complex treble melody with dotted rhythms and a steady bass accompaniment. The fourth system has a treble staff with sustained chords and moving eighth notes, while the bass staff continues with eighth notes. The fifth system concludes with a treble staff of sustained chords and a bass staff with eighth notes. The piece ends with a final chord in the treble and a half note in the bass.

(The head couple link right arms and turn once and a half around. The head lady then turns the next gentleman in line with the left arm once around, while her partner turns the next lady with his left. The head couple then turn each other once around, with right arms. This is continued until the head couple has turned each dancer in line, and has reached the foot of the set. There, they turn each other half around, so that each is on his respective side. Then chasse up the center to the head of the set. Both are now in their original places.)

(Ladies march to the right, gentlemen to the left. When the head couple reaches the foot of the set, they stop, raise both hands, forming an arch, while the line continues, passing under the arch, up the center to the head.)

Note: The couple who started the dance is now at the foot of the set and, of course, foot couple. The new couple now at the head of the set begins the movements and each in turn, until the original couple is back at the head of the set.

Money Musk

The musical score for 'Money Musk' is presented in six systems, each consisting of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The melody in the treble clef is characterized by eighth-note patterns, often beamed in pairs or groups of four. The bass clef accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line, with occasional chords and rests. The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, ties, and triplets (indicated by a '3' over a group of notes). The piece concludes with a final cadence in the bass clef.

Six couples in a set. Give first call before the music begins.

- Head couple swing once and a half around 8 Bars
 (Head couple advance, link right arms, and swing once and a half around and stop, the gentleman between the second and third ladies, and his partner between the second and third gentlemen. Both are now in opposite lines.)
- Forward six 4 "
 (Gentleman who is standing between two ladies will join hands, while his partner who is standing between two gentlemen will also join hands, and all move forward four steps, and back four steps.)
- Swing three-fourths around 4 "
 (The same lady and gentleman join right hands and turn three quarters around, so that they finish between the lines, the lady facing toward the head of the set, her partner facing her and toward the foot of the set.)
- Forward six 4 "
 (The lady joins left hand with the gentleman on her left, and right hand with the lady on her right, forming a straight line, facing toward the head of the set. The gentleman joins right hand with the gentleman on his right, and left hand with the lady on his left, all facing the opposite three. All forward and back.)
- Swing three-quarters to place 4 "
 (The same couple joins hands; swing three-quarters to their own side of the set, one couple below, where they started. This leaves two ladies together and two gentlemen together.)
- Right and left 8 "
 (The same two couples pass through to opposite side of set, each give the left hand and turn. Return to place in the same manner.)

The same couple continues the dance, progressing toward the foot of the set, casting off one couple each time, continuing until all couples have gone through the movements. After the first couple has danced by three couples, the couple then at the head begins. There are now two couples leading at the same time. To end the dance call, -All join hands forward, swing partners, promenade to seats.

No. 25 Hungarian Varsoviennne

The musical score is written for two staves, likely representing the right and left hands of a piano. The key signature is D major (two sharps: F# and C#). The time signature is 3/4. The score consists of six systems of two staves each. The notation includes various musical symbols such as eighth notes, quarter notes, half notes, and rests. There are several triplet markings (indicated by a '3' over a bracket) and slurs. The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the sixth system.

Varsoviennne
